COUNTY BOARD WILL NOT STOP CAMP PROJECT

Decline To Heed Pleas Of Protestants To Interfere With Establishment For Relief Reasons

Protests of the Sharp Park Improvement Association and the County Federation of Clubs to the SRA sustenance camp for 250 single residence men at Sharp Park, were overruled by the Board of Supervisors at the weekly session on Tuesday.

"The state camp is there, and I doubt if it is in the power of this board to do anything about it," declared Supervisor James S. James of Burlingame.

Chairman H. H. Smith, Daly City, said four members of the board had attended the Sharp Park club's meeting, Monday evening, at which the camp was discussed at length, and a vote of the club members favored the project.

A letter from the club, last week, sent to the board in the absence of Club President Ray Higgins, attacked the camp as a "menace to public welfare and safety," and urged the supervisors to use their influence with the SRA to abandon the project. It was backed up by a petition signed by a number of Sharp Park and Rockaway Beach citizens, filed with the board later in the week.

During the discussion of the matter it was revealed that, by a vote of 29 to 21, members of the Sharp Park Improvement Association in open meeting, Monday evening, favored the SRA sustenance camp near here.

The vote was taken after a stormy session at which some members expressed doubt that the camp would

DISTRICT GROUP IN CONVENTION MAKES HISTORY

Many Activities Reported On And Much Enthusiasm Is Manifested By Those In Attendance

To complete the business of the Seventeenth District for the year 1937-38, Mrs. Elmer L. Miller, president, called together all district officers, chairmen and unit presidents of the Parent Teacher Association. The meeting was held at the Little Theater, Burlingame High School, Monday, May 2. Approximately sixty were in attendance.

Mrs. W. R. Newbold, Reciprocity chairman, announced that tickets for the District dinner at the state convention, to be held May 25 at the Furniture Mart in San Francisco, are available. Anyone desiring to attend this dinner may secure tickets by communicating with Mrs. Newbold, who resides at 111 East Santa Inez, San Mateo.

A report was made on the meeting of the Advisory Council Committee attended by Mrs. Ray Boulton, seventh vice president in charge of the department of health, in connection with health projects of the county. Mrs. Boulton was unanimously elected to represent the Seventeenth District P. T. A. at the meetings of this co-ordinating council of health so that members of the district may Pictured in formation is the band of the St. Joseph's Military Academy at Belmont, Cal., which is planning a special pageant for Mother's Day, the coming Sunday, May 8. A program of addresses, competitive drills and a series of military and athletic exhibitions will be the feature of the day. Captain E. A. Dougherty, commandant of the academy, will officiate the program. The observance is held annually on academy's parade grounds.

MOTHERS LIVE IN WATCHFULNESS POPPY DAY WILL HEARTS OF ALL WILL MAKE FOR BE CELEBRATED ON SPECIAL DAY LESS ACCIDENTS BY POST AND UNIT

"In honor of the best mother that ever lived—your mother," is the sentiment set forth each second Sunday of May, which for 1938 will be celebrated next Sunday.

When Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia uttered the above sentence in a public meeting, long ago, in 1907, she little realized then how much significance it would gather as it rolled on down through the years.

Since May, 1913, Mothers' Day is set aside each year by annual proclamation of the President of the United States and the American flag is displayed on all public buildings in commemoration of mothers the nation over.

We are all mothers' sons and daughters, regardless of race, color or social standing. On that day we stand together on common ground in reverent love to her, the highest earthly symbol of untiring devotion, patience, self sacrifice and loyalty.

In our homes and family gatherings on this day of days each of us may find time to relate some pleasing incident of childhood in which

COUNTY PRESS ASSOCIATION TO MEET DALY CITY

The San Mateo County Press Association again meets, Monday evening of next week, May 9, and this time in our own fair city, with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pitschke of the Daly City Record as hosts.

Folks, who dine in Daly City, expect tasty food and plenty of it, and this dinner will follow the desires of its guests.

BURLINGAME MAYOR GIVEN RECEPTION

Allen J. Ward, newly installed mayor of Burlingame, will be feted by his brother Knights of St. Francis Assembly fourth degree, Knights of Columbus, at an informal reception and banquet, next Thursday evening, May 12, at a San Francisco cafe.

Many of you readers of this regular traffic safety paragraph will remember how, 23 years ago this week, the United States was aroused by the sinking of the Lusitania. Twelve hundred lives were lost in this maritime tragedy. But every eleven days of the year, according to the 1937 averages compiled by the National Safety Council, that many lives are lost in traffic accidents in the United States.

In 1915, the loss of that many lives meant the entire nation was aroused to a war-like pitch. Today few people except the families of the victims realize how great is the tragedy.

But, with your help, these accidents can be stopped. Your part in the organized campaign against accidents is to drive with extra care and walk with extra caution.—San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission.

ROYAL PAIR PLAN U. S. HONEYMOON

Grand Duchess Kira

Wed in simple civil rites, Grand Duchess Kira, daughter of Grand Duke Cyril, pretender to the throne of the Russians, recently united the Romanoffs and the Hohenzollerns when she became the bride of Prince Louis Ferdinand at Potsdam, Germany. A religious ceremony followed in accordance with the rites of the Russian Orthodox Church. A third ceremony will be held in accordance with the German Evangelical faith at Doorn House, Holland, in the presence of the bridegroom's grandfather, ex-Kaiser Wilhelm. The couple plan a honeymoon in the United States.

Large Committees Of Post And Unit Now Making Arrangements

Preparations for the observance of Poppy Day, Saturday, May 28, are being completed by the Daly City Unit No. 410, American Legion Auxiliary, it has been announced by Alice Reilly, president. Arrangements are being directed by Hilda Prziborski, chairman of the Poppy Day committee, assisted by a large corps of workers from the Unit. Plans are being developed to distribute memorial poppies in every part of the city.

Honor the World War dead and aid the war's living victims, is the meaning of the memorial poppy. The poppy, which bloomed so strikingly among the trenches and battle graves in France and Belgium, became the flower of the dead during the war. Since then it has been worn in all English speaking countries annually as an individual tribute to the men who gave their lives in the conflict.

The little red flower takes added significance from the fact that it is made by the war disabled, and that it contributes to the welfare of the disabled men and the dependent families of veterans. Everyone who wears a poppy on Poppy Day not only is showing remembrance and honor for the men who died in the war, but is giving help to those who still are bearing the burdens of the war in suffering, privation and lost opportunities. All contributions will go to support the rehabilitation and welfare work of the Legion and Auxiliary, which means so much to the disabled veterans and the families of the dead and disabled.

The women of Daly City Unit are making great efforts for a successful Poppy Day this year and are hoping that everyone in Daly City will catch the spirit of the day and will join with them in honoring the dead and aiding the disabled.

Highway Patrol Has New Wrinkle

A "traveling safety lane" has been inaugurated by the California Highway Patrol.

Equipped with the most modern devices for testing brakes, lights, steering gear, wheel alignment and other safety factors in all types of automobiles, a special patrol squad now is touring the state to provide free inspection for all motorists who desire it.

The free inspection service was inaugurated as a special feature of the state wide traffic accident reduction campaign.

ADAMS LOOKING CONTEMPT CASE TO TOP RIDERS IN IS DECIDED BY SECOND SEASON GUILTY VERDICT

Few Jockeys Have Been Able To Win Laurels For Two Successive Years

Johnny Adams, the "little giant" of the saddle, is back in the stirrups again with the opening of the Tanforan spring meeting, gunning for his second straight national saddle championship. The leader in 1936 with 260 winners, he now holds a scant lead over R. L. Vedder, with Eddie Arcaro closely lapped for third honors.

Spurning a chance to ride on the New York tracks, an offer to pilot a mount in the Kentucky Derby, Adams remains in the West, his prowess acclaimed by both horsemen and racegoers alike.

If he captures the 1938 honors, he will go down in history as one of the few riders on the American turf who have won the national title two consecutive years. The records disclose that only Tommy Burns, Walter Miller, Vince Powers and Ivan Parke—all pigskin immortals—were able to lead the list twice in a row.

Adams is trying for his seventh consecutive meeting as leading rider—his victory march starting at Riverside Park, Mo., last year and continuing to Spokane, Wash., then to Bay Meadows, Tanforan, Santa Anita, and back to the recent Bay Meadows meeting. He finished second on the list at Longacres, Wash., due only to the fact that he wasn't there for the entire meeting.

OPEN MEETING OF GOVERNING BODY HEARS ADDRESS

Speaker Compares Methods In Europe With Modern Ones In America

Scores of teachers of San Mateo County attended the open meeting of the governing council, which took the form of a dinner, at Sequoia Union High School, Monday evening of this week.

The speaker of the evening was Mr. F. T. Letchfield, assistant vice president of the Wells Fargo Bank and Union Trust Company, a famous consulting engineer. Mr. Letchfield was one of a small group of scientists who visited the important scientific laboratories of Europe last year. The teachers who were fortunate enough to be present declared that the address by the banker was one of the finest that the organization has been privileged to hear.

The speaker talked briefly of the industrial situation in England, France and Germany and drew interesting comparisons between the old order of these countries and of modern America. He emphasized the fact that our pre-eminence had come from (1) an age-old struggle for liberty; (2) our qualities of courage, and (3) the equality of right with an absolute absence of castes. This country has only 7 per cent of the world's population, but it has one-half of the world's wealth and nearly 90 per cent of the world's automobiles. America spends more for education than any other country and sends more of her young people than all the other civilized countries of the world combined, the speaker said.

Clive M. Saiz, president of the association and instructor of history at Jefferson Union High School was elected as the association's delegate to the National Education Association convention, which will be held in New York next month.

The Jefferson Union High School teachers who attended the dinner included Messrs. Ferguson, Paterson and Saiz and Miss Marjorie Robinson.

PROBATION FOR BURGLAR

On condition that he serve 90 days in the county jail, Robert W. Priest, convicted Colma burglar, early this week, was admitted to two years probation by Superior Judge McNutt. The court gave him credit for about 60 days already spent in jail.

Insurance Broker And Political Figure Sentenced On Charges Of "Fixing" Attempt

George H. Chiossi, San Mateo insurance broker and county political figure, Tuesday of this week, was found guilty by Superior Judge William James of contempt of court charges, fined $100 and sentenced to two days in the county jail.

Chiossi's attorneys secured a five-day stay of execution.

Judge James, in sentencing Chiossi, said he was not concerned so much with the $100 check Chiossi secured from Mrs. Dance, as he was with Chiossi's interest in the case and the statement he assertedly made that he could secure probation for Mrs. Dance's son, Benjamin, convicted of drunken driving in the auto death of George Noble.

The judge declared he was convinced that young Dance told the truth in his testimony, whereas he was of the opinion that Chiossi was not telling the truth in denying the statements assertedly made to the youth.

In sentencing Chiossi, Judge James said:

"When anyone makes a statement that he can control the process of the court or direct the course of justice, he is taking a very serious stand and that subjects him to very serious consequences.

"When anyone makes such a statement, I don't see how they could become definitely in contempt of court."

The San Jose jurist was assigned to try the contempt proceedings after withdrawal of Superior Judge McNutt, who issued the order to show cause against Chiossi.

Chiossi was accused by the San Mateo County probation officer and the court with taking a $100 check from Mrs. Mary E. Dance, under promise to "deliver" probation to her son, who stood charged, several weeks ago, with negligent homicide in the auto death of George Noble, San Mateo negro.

Dance subsequently was acquitted of negligent homicide and convicted of drunk driving by a jury which recommended probation.

Reviewing the affidavits at the hearing on the demurrer, Judge James said that "things are permitted to attorneys at law which are not permitted to the layman."

BIG GRADUATING LIST AT JAYSEE THIS SEMESTER

Number Of Faculty Members Attend Association Meeting At Sacramento

High sophomores at the San Mateo Junior College have a tentative graduation list of 117 students to receive diplomas this June. The number will really be larger, as the students who were graduated at the close of the fall semester will also receive their diplomas at the same commencement.

More than 700 high school seniors of the county attended a College Day, Wednesday of this week, and were given the chance to see what college classes are like. A noon luncheon and an assembly program also formed part of the program.

President Charles Morris and a number of the faculty attended the annual spring meeting of the Northern California Junior College Association at Sacramento last Saturday. Seventeen junior colleges were represented.

This Friday and Saturday evenings the College Players will stage their term production, the comedy "Stage Door." A large cast is required for the play.

Two Matean pitchers have won no-hit, no-run baseball games recently.

San Mateo sent its A Cappella Choir to the annual junior college music festival, Saturday. Held this year at San Jose State College, the event drew music groups from many schools.

ROCKAWAY BEACH
PEDRO VALLEY

By C. H. T.

So far as that organized protest to be made against the work camps at Sharp's Park (Salada Beach) went, it is reminded of the old nursery rhyme:

"The king of France, and forty thousand men
Drew their swords — and put them back again."

The meeting at Sharp's Park came off according to schedule, with a marked preponderance of those for the project. The vote taken at the meeting counted up with thirty-four in favor of the camps, as against twenty-two opposed to them. The following day, Tuesday, was to have signaled local protest by a delegation of resident voters to the Supervisors' meeting at Redwood City. To this delegation all and sundry were urged, a free bus being promised for all those unfortunates who had no car. Not being mediumistic, it is not given to the present writer to know just how many of the car-less waited patiently around, like Mary's little lamb, for that free bus. It simply didn't come. And most of the patient waiters upon free bus service, finally went home, took off their best hats, and called it a day. Had it not been for the kindness of a neighbor, the three Pedro people who finally landed at the Redwood City session, would not have been present. There were, in fact, only four people to represent the coastside there! Miss Josephine Lack of Rockaway, who might have made the fifth, arrived breathlessly after the meeting was over, having thumbed her way to Daly City by a succession of casual rides, and from there, by regular bus, to Redwood City. Of course we know, now, the vote settled the affair, beyond discussion.

There have been a number of misconceptions relative to this matter of the work camps, and many who at first opposed them have become supporters of the plan. At the supervisors' meeting, only one objection was voiced by one of the delegates, this was the lack of adequate police protection along the coastside. But this the supervisors very graciously promised should be provided by the time the camps are organized and in working order, our county board seeming to understand our local problems and exactly what is needed. We only hope that beneficiaries of this plan for the wholesome living and employment of those who have come out on the debit side of the ledger during the depression, may find in the beautiful valley near Sharp's Park a help toward the better days that once were theirs.

Mrs. Sant of Pedro Beach, who was taken to the San Mateo Hospital last week, after an accident, is reported improving, and soon to return to her home.

It's one thing to buy casual tickets for any old seat at the circus, to stretch one's neck trying to see over those in front, and quite another thing to be invited by the circus chiefs to occupy the very best seats under the big top and see all the great sights as guests and friends of the management. This is what happened to Mr. and Mrs. Hermie Bryant of Pedro, and their three children one bright day last week, when Al G. Barnes-Sells Floto Circus came to town. Not only did they take in all that ten wide-open eyes could see of the various rings at once, but afterward they met the chefs of the commissary department, saw the marvels of circus cooking arrangements, and sat down with the circus people to a wonderful dinner! At this unusual feast the Bryants were guests of Mr. George Tipton, commissary steward, who — now 84 years old — started to work for the circus in 1874, a lifetime ago. The children (including particularly Mr. Bryant) were thrilled to meet Johnny (one of the most famous clowns in the world), Mabel Stark, celebrated as a lion and tiger tamer; Walter McLean, the great elephant trainer; with trapeze artists, bareback riders, and all the glamorous people who make up that fabulous world of the circus. Once in a lifetime such a dazzling chance presents itself to "come and bring the family and stay to dinner" at the circus. The Bryants are still talking about it.

Those hollows along the Clifton road, Pedro, have been mended nicely ly and filled in with some of that "decomposed granite" so popular hereabouts. A much needed improvement.

The Danmans, Garners and Martins held an impromptu barbecue, Tuesday, in the Danman garden, with Grace making tortillas, and Clyde and Hector cooking the meat. Old "Rex," the Danman dog, made the most of the occasion by sneaking up on a huge beef chunk, snatching it from the grill blazing-hot, and gulping it down before anybody could say Jack Robinson! In disgrace today, but still pleasantly full, Rex lay in a deep reverie on the door mat, hoping there will be another barbecue soon again.

Mrs. Johnson of the Terrace, Pedro, had a birthday one day this week. She and her niece, Ruth, spent part of it at Rockaway with friends and neighbors, and dropped in at Maracci's place at the Pedro Beach on the way home. Mrs. Johnson received a handsome floor lamp from two friends in San Francisco, who drove down to wish her many happy returns of the day.

The Fred Bohrs come down often, these fine spring days, to enjoy their beautiful summer home on the Pedro heights.

The Runnings are working at their hillside lot, trying to eliminate slides before they begin to build their house.

Jack Harrison, police officer of San Francisco, entertained 67 friends at a barbecue, Easter Sunday, at Rockaway Beach. The menu included two lambs (one roasted and one barbecued) and a young pig. One might add that none of Officer Harrison's guests went home hungry—or thirsty.

Mrs. Holton Hornbeck, general chairman of the dessert card party, the annual social affair of the district, announced that it would be held at the Masonic Temple, Burlingame, at 1:30 o'clock on May 20.

A summer roundup is to be held May 10, 11 and 12 in Burlingame under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Gregson, school nurse, together with three local physicians. This is a national campaign to send to the entering grade of school a class of children free from remediable defects. All children who expect to enter either kindergarten or school for the first time are eligible for physical examination. Those of the Hoover District will meet at the Roosevelt School Tuesday, 9 to 11 o'clock; Howard Avenue District at the school, Wednesday, 9 to 11; and those from Pershing, Coolidge and McKinley Districts at the McKinley School, Thursday, 9 to 11, it was announced by Mrs. Forster Smith, Child Health Survey chairman.

Ralston, the newly elected president for 1938-39 and also a member of that unit. Woodside was responsible for the flower decorations which made such a fitting background for this festive occasion.

The District Choral, under the direction of Mrs. Frederick C. Lee and accompanied by Mrs. C. M. Bandsel, shared in giving inspiration to all in attendance with the distinguished speakers, guests and many friends who brought greetings to the district convention.

Jefferson Union High School P. T. A. members were responsible for the maypole decorations that were used on the luncheon tables Thursday.

Mrs. F. L. Knapfer was the soloist, Friday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Robert L. Smith.

On the completion of the reading of Mrs. Miller's annual report, Mrs. Ralston, chairman of the day, presented her with a token of love and esteem from the Parent-Teacher members of Seventeenth District with many words of praise.

Humor and good fellowship reigned throughout the convention, which will long be remembered in the history of Seventeenth District, Parent-Teacher Association, San Mateo County.

Mrs. Elmer L. Miller announced at the post convention board meeting that the executive board members would meet May 2, the place to be announced later by Mrs. W. R. Henry, corresponding secretary.

3 NEW WPA PROBLEMS ARRIVE AT OAKLEY, CAL.

Adding to the complexity of his problems of making his budget stretch, Peter Romero, WPA worker of Oakley, Cal., was recently presented with three sons. Left to right are the latest Romeros — Richard, Ronald and Raymond. They weigh 5, 6 and 7 1/4 pounds respectively. The family was comprised of eight children before April 30, when it took a sudden jump to eleven.

MYSTERY PLAY
DRAWS CROWDS
IN LARGE FLOCKS

Great Audiences Experience
Many Thrills During Production

Seven ghosts walked the stage of the Alcazar Theater this week in the thrillingly sensational mystery ghost play "A Murder Has Been Arranged," but as one leaves the theater the question arises as to whether there were any ghosts and if the entire play was not an optical illusion.

The curtain is up on a cold, unset stage as the audience files in. Presently a couple of stage hands become evident. The orchestra is in rehearsal on music for a dinner to be given on the stage by an eccentric heir to millions, a student of the occult. This unusual spot for a dinner party has been selected as the host desires to witness the meandering of a ghost that tradition reports is due. A glaring work light casts an eerie, unreal gleam on the spacious emptiness. Presently the thread of the play is taken up. Real people and ghosts prance all about the place. The about-to-be millionaire is murdered. His ghost walks and presides at the dinner. The murderer is discovered and the curtain drops on a stage peopled with actors. Immediately it bounces up again and not a soul is in sight;

JEFFERSON TEAM
LOSES IN GAME
WITH PANTHERS

Jefferson's golf teams recently met San Mateo, the P. A. champions of the previous year. The Indian's first team traveled to San Mateo for their competition and suffered a 4-2 defeat at the hands of the Panthers.

Although the Jeffersonians lost, they made a good showing against such playing as that of Walter Gilliam, who shot a low 70.

The Indian second team played host to the San Mateo seconds at Ingleside Golf Course and deadlocked their score at 3-3, both teams doing an excellent job of divot digging.

Balboa netsters were given a hard battle by the newly organized Jefferson tennis team. Ed Talbot and Phil Boyle were Jeff's winners. Results of the match were as follows:

Talbot (J) d. Erickson (B), 6-1, 6-4.

Kruger (B) d. Kennedy (J), 8-6, 6-4.

Adams (B) d. Barghini (J), 5-7, 6-1, 6-3.

Adams and Loke d. Kennedy and Barghini (J), 5-7, 7-5, 6-4.

King and Boise d. Wright and Millet, 9-7, 6-3.

the work light is back in place and the stage as deserted and cold as if it had never been crossed by a human being. The effect is startling.

The play will continue throughout this week and next, closing Saturday night, May 14.

"Prologue To Glory," New York smash success by Prof. Ellsworth P. Conkle, a story of Abraham Lincoln's youth at the time he met and fell in love with Anne Rutledge, opens for a limited run, Monday night, May 16.

Visitacion and Bayshore News

BAYSHORE NEWS

By Irene Mardecich

A new baseball club is being formed in Bayshore by some of our male adults. The fans include, R. Davis, Al Cordray, O. Luchen, C. Richards, G. Henery, B. Mardecich and J. Cox. The men have a game all lined up for this Sunday with a rival team in San Francisco and stand ready to challenge all comers. It's one way of keeping young and out of trouble.

The Bayshore Voters League held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday night. After a short business meeting, a very fine program of motion pictures was enjoyed by the members. The refreshment committee served coffee and doughnuts as usual. The league plans to purchase a motion picture machine of its own soon.

The boys of the Bayshore School will be guests of the Jefferson Union High School and Principal James Ferguson, when they will enjoy a free swim in the new high school pool. Boys of the Brisbane School will also be guests at the same time. The girls will be entertained on another day.

When Miss Eleanor Freeman, assistant to County Superintendent of Schools Pansy Jewett Abbott visited the Bayshore School last week, she chanced to hear the seventh and eighth grades play musical selections on bells. She was so impressed that she told Miss Abbott how lovely it was and as a result, Miss Abbott immediately phoned Miss Plumb and asked to have the children make a tour of other schools in the county and give a demonstration of their skill. Transportation will be arranged and the trip will be made some time during the end of the month.

Mrs. Joseph Walling entertained ladies of her whist club this week. Prizes were awarded for the best hands and lovely refreshments served by Mrs. Walling.

Mr. Pellestri suffered injuries to his hand last week and as a result has had to take an enforced vacation.

Dorothy Durbin spent a few days in the hospital last week and had her tonsils out. Dorothy is doing nicely after her operation.

VISITACION VALLEY

W. O. W.

Fern Leaf Camp of the Woodmen initiated a class of four candidates last Wednesday evening, three men and one lady; another class will be admitted in the middle of May. Our degree team, composed of ladies, did excellent work for the first time the team appeared on the floor. Congratulations to their captain, Mrs. Mildred Mooreton. After the initiation, the monthly birthday party was celebrated in honor of six members whose birthdays were in April. Salads, sandwiches, cake and coffee were on the menu, followed by dancing.

The horse shoe team is training hard to keep the lead in the league for the golden cup, which they won last term; three time winner keeps it permanently. Monday eve., May 2, they play Golden Gate Camp team, whom they lead by one point.

IMPROVEMENTS

The Visitacion Valley Improvement Club is still securing new applicants, several more presented last week, now have about 300 on the roll, committees make wonderful reports. BAYSHORE PTA

Mrs. Emily Shaw, Publicity Chairman
105 MacDonald Ave., Del. 9523

Bayshore P. T. A. will hold its regular meeting on Friday, May 13. Mrs. Idaho Gaines, program chairman promises an interesting program and urges all members to attend.

Executive board meeting is scheduled for Friday at the Riley Hall and many matters of importance will be discussed.

Bayshore P. T. A. was well represented at the district convention and the delegates were pleased to hear that Bayshore Unit will again receive a standard rating this year.

President Susie Byrne made the following yearly report in the form of a telegram: Bayshore P. T. A. sponsored school picnic, graduation, hallowe'en and Christmas parties, Bayshore fiesta, Easter egg hunt, girl scouts and traffic boys. Contributed to Red Cross, district aid, Christmas seals and student aid. Sent president to state convention, and furnished milk, shoes and glasses for needy children. Money derived from whists, hot dog, food and candy sales, amateur program and round robin. Made every effort to attain standard rating.

Mrs. Leta Riley, art chairman, received first prize for an adult poster, which she had made. The subject of the poster was "Peace."

Bayshore's publicity book received honorable mention for its inside publicity. The credit for this work should also be given to Mrs. Riley, who spent many hours of work on the notices, programs and posters.

Last Thursday evening Mesdames Franzen, Jeppesen and Prestidge attended Brisbane's installation of officers and brought back the report that among many fine things done by Brisbane P. T. A., a motion picture projector had been given the Brisbane school, part of which was paid by the school trustees, and Mr. McKinney promised that Bayshore P. T. A. would be given a similar donation by the school trustees if and when we buy a projector for our school.

Tickets for the district dinner at the state convention in San Francisco are now on sale and can be purchased from Mrs. Susie Byrnes.

THE COOKIE JAR

(By Edgar A. Guest)

You can rig up a house with all manner of things,
The prayer rugs of sultans and princes and kings;
You can hang on its walls the old tapestries rare
Which some dead Egyptian once treasured with care;
But though costly and gorgeous its furnishings are,
It must have, to be homelike, an old cookie jar.

There are just a few things that a home must possess,
Besides all your money and all your success—
A few good old books, which some loved one has read,
Some trinkets of those, whose sweet spirits have fled
And then in the pantry, not shoved back too far
For the hungry to get to, that old cookie jar.

Let the house be a mansion, I care not at all!
Let the finest of pictures be hung on each wall,
Let the carpets be made of the richest velour,
And the chairs only those which great wealth can procure,
I'd still want to keep for the joy of my flock
That homey, old-fashioned, well-filled cookie crock.

Like the love of the mother it shines through our years;
It has soothed all our hurts and has dried away tears;
It has paid us for tolling; in sorrow or joy,
It has always shown kindness to each girl and boy;
And I'm sorry for people, whoever they are,
Who live in a house where there's no cookie jar.

BANKHEAD BREAKS TOE ON BED

OBSERVATIONS OF GOINGS ON IN NATION CAPITAL

(By Hart Goodrich)

Mobilizing Our National Resources, As Well As Men, Would Act As Effective Weapon Against War

We don't want war—none of us do, yet it is much better while we are at peace with the rest of the world to enact, with careful consideration, laws that the majority feel necessary for the good of all in time of war. A great many veterans of the World War feel, and rightly, that while they were serving overseas at $30 per month their more fortunate brothers at home were receiving exceptionally high wages for much pleasanter work. Of course, the bonus sought to make up for this inequality, but it would be much better to settle the question now and not have to pay another bonus in the future in the event of a war.

There are several bills introduced to Congress and planning to be introduced which will provide for a mobilization of the nation's resources, as well as man power. The primary purpose seems to be to do away with the possibility of wartime profiteering. The May bill has already been reported out by the House Military Affairs Committee and holds a place on the House calendar. Without passing judgment on the merits of the bill, it may be said with accuracy that the bill proposes to transfer to the President of the United States practically dictatorial powers.

There are several other wartime legislative plans not as close to enactment as the May bill. Senator Connally of Texas proposes a wartime measure which has what the May bill lacks—namely, a wartime tax structure. Upon entrance of the United States into war, increased tax rates and reduced exemptions for individuals would automatically become effective. Personal exemption would be lowered to $300 and $1600 for single and married persons, with a normal rate of 10 per cent and a surtax beginning at 6 per cent of the first $1000 of taxable income and reaching 80 per cent. If you are married and making about $5000 yearly, your income tax would be about $700 instead of around $100, are,

Who live in a house where there's no cookie jar.

as at present. Corporations would be forced to pay an undistributed profits tax beginning at 30 per cent and rising rapidly to 77 per cent.

The Connally tax plan sounds very steep, but Senator Nye of North Dakota advocates an even heavier income tax. Where the top combined rate under the Connally schedule would be 90 per cent on net incomes above $50,000, the Nye plan would impose a 99 per cent penalty on that part of net income above $20,000.

Representative Mavnick of Texas is ready to introduce a similar bill in the House.

The House Military Affairs Committee recommends special war-time taxes which would provide a "pay-as-you-go" condition. When we, all, realize that each one of us will definitely "feel" the war, whether "at the front" or not, more flag waving and band playing may be necessary to get us into the next war.

TALE O' THE TOWN

By Joseph Straughan

NEIGHBORS

"What will the neighbors say?" That is a question that often runs through my mind since an incident of not so long ago. It happened this way: A friend asked me to mend a camera which was—shall I say—cross-eyed? Anyway it didn't take what was seen in the viewfinder. Perhaps I used a rather crude method to correct the defect, but it worked.

I first made the camera rigid and then opened the back and attached a piece of waxed paper in the place where the film ordinarily would be, to serve as a "ground glass." When the shutter was opened the scene in front of the lens was imaged on the waxed paper and I was able to compare it with the scene in the viewfinder, thus being able to adjust them to correspond one with the other. "Simple, wasn't it?"

All might have been well and this tale never told except that I happened to use some shirts on the clothes line for the view. Two neighbor women eyed my actions (antics to them) and I heard one exclaim:

$150,000 POKER LOSS IS PROBED

Harry T. Clifton

Harry T. Clifton, wealthy English sportsman, who recently lost $150,000 in one poker hand at Los Angeles. District Attorney Buron Fitts assigned an investigator to the case to determine if the original game was draw poker. The latter is held by Attorney General U. S. Webb of California to be legal in that state. Stud poker is illegal. Payment on checks covering Clifton's I. O. U. was stopped. Lew Brice, brother of Fanny Brice and Tommy Guinan, brother of the late famous Texas Guinan, were sought as the alleged other players in the poker game.

Samuel R. Roof recently returned from Russia on the Berengaria, on which he had the finest accommodations. Now a wealthy New York contractor, he possibly reflected on the difference between his latest passage to America and his first, on which he worked his way as a 11-year-old potato peeler.

"Did you ever! Taking a picture of his washing!"
Imagine my embarrassment, but nothing could be done except to grin and bear it.

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

"Adam and Fallen Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, May 8, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Golden Text will be: "The Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord," (Isaiah 59: 20). Other Bible citations will include: "Let no man deceive you with vain words: . . . For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: . . . And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. . . . Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light" (Eph. 5: 6 to 8, 11, 14).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is well that the upper portions of the brain represent the higher moral sentiments, as if hope were ever prophesying thus: The human mind will sometime rise above all material and physical sense, exchanging it for spiritual perception, and exchanging human concepts for the divine consciousness" (p. 531).

BRISBANE GENERALITIES

Mothers Day is May 8th; let's all remember the sweetest person on earth. May we wish everyone of them long lives and loads of happiness.

Mrs. O. A. Ferguson and daughter returned home from Fort Londerdale, Fla., where they were visiting Mrs. Layman's daughter. Fort Londerdale is sometimes called, "Little Venice," where it is a common thing to look out your windows and see lovely yachts sailing by. They also went on a jungle trip through El Paso, Texas, and old Mexico. They enjoyed the trip very much.

Mrs. Doug Curtner is expected to arrive here some time this week from an extensive visit with her parents in Hobart, Okla. Our California sun will probably feel mighty good after the severe snows of that part of the U. S. A.

The Christian Endeavor of the Community Church is giving a party tonight at the home of the Al Foster's. Mr. Foster and Beth Nelson are on the entertainment committee.

As your regular reporter would say, "We hear tell" Mrs. Donaldson makes delicious chocolate pies.

Little Willie Harris must be expecting lots of those lovely little pests (flies to you) this summer. He has been busy all week with hammer and saw, making screens. Not a bad idea (Eh folks.)

Did you know we not only have a Winchell in our midst, but also a Scoopy Jones? However, we won't worry much because they are one and the same person.

Mr. and Mrs. Bragg are moving across the street from their former home. Their new address will be 54 San Benito.

We think the person or persons that smashed a fender on a car parked in front of 300 Klamath street, Sunday night, would have manhood or womanhood enough to find the owner of that car and pay for repairs, and do you know we have a speed limit in Brisbane or had you heard.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Curtner and family spent an enjoyable afternoon last Sunday, at Half Moon Bay.

The Brisbane Athletic Club won over the Mantel Club by a score of 8 to 7. Powerful Freddie knocked in the winning run.

Cards have been received from Bud Lampke and Bob Ross. They are getting along nicely.

Raymond Gueffray, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gueffray, fell out of bed one day last week, and suffered a broken elbow. We wish him a fast recovery.

After the regular meeting, lead by Mr. Al Foster, the Christian Endeavor enjoyed lemon chiffon pie served by Mrs. Donaldson. They then went on to the Nelson home where Mrs. Nelson served hot chocolate and coconut cake. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Layman will leave Brisbane, the latter part of this week. She will go as far as Klamath Falls, with her uncle, W. B. Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Warfel have a new addition to their family, a baby boy weighing 8 pounds, 12 ounces, born at St. Luke's Hospital, April 17.

It is rumored we are at last to have a beauty shop in Brisbane. It will be next door to the "Bob Burn's ice cream parlor."

Mrs. Joe Devlin was scheduled to be discontinued even if it proved a failure, and representatives of labor expressed apprehension over competition if the camp clients were used on work projects.

Members of the Board of Supervisors, County Executive Rolison and County Engineer Marshall spoke. Marshall said there is "so much work to be done, that men from twelve such camps could be used." He told of needed improvements at Sharp Park and elsewhere in the county.

The supervisors were of the opinion that the camp should be given a chance to prove its worth.

P. T. A. leaders among the club members expressed dissatisfaction with the assurances of proper policing, and said that the strength of 4000 P. T. A. members in the county would back up Sharp Park citizens if the camp were not properly policed.

Elmer Bose, state SRA camp superintendent, stated that a certain city in the county had asked for another such camp to be located near its boundaries, but did not name the city.

It was decided by the board that it would be for the best interest of the district and county if the officials did not interfere with establishment of the camp as proposed.

The camp is to be within full operation within the next two weeks, according to Harold Pomeroy, state relief director, who stated there are about 3000 single unattached men eligible for assignment.

We wish to welcome him to our community.

Sunday School will be as usual at 10 a.m.

Davis Attends Red Cross Convention

YOUR ABILITY IS NOW MEASURED BY OWN EFFORT

Initiative And Endeavor Said To Be Principal Keys To Success In life

Things that go on behind the scenes of an employment office was the theme of Mr. Dick Carlson in addressing the student body of Jefferson Union High School, Friday of last week.

He stated that only one out of every hundred really masters anything. Twelve out of every hundred are proficient or almost experts. Twenty-seven are students; they studied the subject, know something about it, and are employed on the lower grade jobs, but never become proficient. Sixty out of every hundred don't care; they go on their way, but don't know where they are going.

"One out of every hundred," he continued, "earns ten thousand dollars a year at the age of 45. Six out of every hundred earn two hundred and fifty dollars a month at 45. At the age of 65 one is wealthy, fourteen are comfortable, five are still working, 36 out of one hundred have died along the way; 54 are not dead, but are dead broke."

He stated further that getting is merely the reaction of giving. Society will reward you in most parts for what you give to society. We should know our objective, what obstacles are in the way, training, education, skill and specialization, and what kind of persons we are morally.

Mr. Carlson told the students of an encyclopedia of jobs which is being written in Washington. It is eight and a half by eleven feet. It gives a

OLD GASKETS

Never restore old gaskets if new ones are available, suggests an expert.

There is considerable leakage of oil from many motors, as evidenced by black streaks on highways. This loss could be avoided to a large extent if use of old gaskets was less frequent.

In conclusion, he said that the record one makes today is the one that will remain with him for the rest of his life. Upon the kind of record one makes will depend his future, and he will never be able to get away from it. Your record will follow you wherever you go, and your habits will also follow you.
